Sunday Scriptures

Here are next Sunday's Scripture Readings

First Reading: Wisdom 2:12, 17-20

Wicked people discuss their anger at the just one, because they do not like being reproached for their evil ways. They want to see if he is the Son of God, so they decide to torture him and see if God will come to defend him. They decide to condemn him to a shameful death and see if the claims are true that God will take care of him.

Second Reading: James 3:16—4:3

Gospel: Mark 9:30-37

Please remember those who have died

Please pray for the repose of the souls of the deceased spouses, relatives, friends, and benefactors of the parish and for the comfort and consolation of their families, including: Mike Ward.

Please pray for the sick

Gail Williams, Peggy Lane, Henry Gregory, Craig Percopo, Judy DiLeo, Sandy Netkie, Ciara King, Eleanor Bennett, Frank Quigley, Mike Paxton, John Cedeno, Carol Fitzpatrick, Madeline Oberting, Mary Buono, Patricia Macerino, Erin MacIntoch, Anthony Bonelli, Edna Duffy, Francis Bobick, Wilson Cruz, Timothy Feeney, Thomas Hallahan, Ginny Balahua, Will Riccitelli, Kathleen Kwinnetti, Christopher Pimental, Jay Cloud, Cindy Sheldon, Donna Griffonetti, Scotty Duerr, Maia West, Virginia Bittner, John Petras, Barbara Ballestas, Ann Hopkins, and those in the sick call book.

Exposition of the Blessed Sacrament

Jesus chooses to come to us under the appearance of bread because bread is made from wheat. Wheat is beaten, broken and crushed before it becomes bread. Jesus was willing to be beaten at the pillar, broken in Heart, and crushed in humiliation that He may be for us "the Living Bread come down from Heaven." The clear, specific, and unmistakable way in which Christ had consistently and repeatedly pleaded with mankind to adore Him is through appreciation of the gift of His total presence among us in the most Blessed Sacrament. His appeal to His Apostles in the garden is His appeal to us today: "Could you not watch one hour with me?" His words to St. Margaret Mary are even more valid today: "Behold this Heart which has so loved men and which is so little loved in return... I thirst with such a terrible thirst to beloved by men in this sacrament of my love." Jesus anxiously awaits a visit from you, here in our Church, every Wednesday between 3 & 6PM... Come & Behold, the lamb of God...

HOPE For the Homebound Ministry

We are reaching out to parishioners who may be alone, homebound, and unable to participate in our Church Community. If you are homebound, or know of someone who is homebound, and would like to receive the Eucharist or just a friendly visit or call from one of our parishioners, please call the parish office to make arrangements.

Healing Mass

All are welcome to join us every third Friday of the month (from September to May) for a Healing Mass. We will begin at 6:45PM in the worship area with prayer and reflection. Mass will commence at 7PM followed by Prayers of Healing and Adoration.

Our next Healing Mass will be on September 20th.

Wellness for Maturing Adults

The HOPE – Wellness Ministry invites you to join them every first Wednesday of the month where they will discuss wellness for maturing adults. This program goes far beyond simple "health practices" (diet, exercise, etc.) for better health; it teaches how to harness psychological power, and spiritual strength to achieve optimal health in body, mind and spirit. Our next meeting will be on October 2nd following the 9AM Mass.

Bethany Bereavement

The Church of Epiphany Bethany Bereavement Support Group offers peer support for those grieving the death of a loved one. If you have lost a loved one, join others who have also experienced a loss for a series of 6 sessions of information, mutual sharing and peer support in a spiritual, caring, and confidential setting. If you are interested in joining, please call 732-458-0220.

Gospel: Mark 8:27-35

Jesus taught his disciples that as the Messiah, he had to suffer much, be put to death, and rise three days later. Peter began to disagree and Jesus reprimanded him for judging by human standards rather than by God's. He told them that whoever would be willing to lose their life for the sake of Jesus and the gospel, will in fact preserve their life forever.

"What good is it, my brothers and sisters, if someone says he has faith, but does not have works? Can that faith save him? If a brother or sister has nothing to wear and has no food for the day and one of you says to them, 'Go in peace, keep warm and eat well,' but you do not give them the necessities of the body, what good is it? So also faith of itself, if it does not have works, is dead."

The letter of James demands we put into action what we believe. When we see the victims of war, natural disasters, or even a neighbor who is struggling, that is the moment for us to spring to action.

I can begin with prayer for them thinking I'm too old or ill to do something. I can put the teaching of the judgement scene into action... 'I was hungry, thirsty, naked, a stranger, and ill or incarcerated' and you came to me.

Consider this teaching as if you were opening a letter from family or friend, desperate for your help. Don't you want to assist them in their need? They are the 'least of my brethren' at this moment. How great a meeting as you reveal the face of Christ by your action and discover His face in them.

Opening Your Heart: The Starting Point

This study explores the fundamental questions of our Catholic faith and our relationship with Jesus Christ. Join us as we examine the core questions that we need to wrestle with if we want to experience all that God has for us.

- How do I get my priorities in order?
- I've been going through the motions in my spiritual life—how does it relate to my day-to-day life?
