I cherish you more than you can imagine- to the point of dying on a cross for you. I thirst for you. I thirst to love you and to be loved by you – that is how precious you are to Me. "Come to Me," and I will fill your heart and heal your wounds. I will I make you a new creation and give you peace even in your trials. I thirst for you.

Come and spend some time with me... We have Jesus here with us exposed on the altar, in the Monstrance for Eucharistic Adoration, every Wednesday from 3-6 PM. Will you respond to the call?

Hide me in the shelter of your wings

Gospel: Mark 10:35-45

Two of the disciples ask Jesus that they be allowed to sit at his right and left side when he comes into his glory. Jesus explains that they should not be concerned with their position. Instead, they should concern themselves with serving others just as Jesus was planning to serve many in giving his own life for their sins.

“Rather whoever wishes to be great among you will be your servant; whoever wishes to be first among you will be the slave of all. For the Son of Man did not come to be served but to serve and to give his life as a ransom for the many... ‘Teacher, we want you to do for us whatever we ask of you.’”

Our society constantly urges us to get ahead. We are not satisfied and want more education, a better job as a mark of success. How different. Remember what Jesus did at the Last Supper. He humbly washed the feet of the apostles as a sign of service and as a lesson for His followers.

The mark of greatness or success is not found in the prestigious role one has, or the power he or she can display. It is found in the service rendered to others as an expression of our love of God.

May we speak as the apostles did, asking Him to assist us in learning how to serve and put it into practice. Think of a person you know who exemplifies this gift.

We need a new Voice!

The Contemporary Group is looking for a singer. They provide music at our 4PM Mass each Saturday. They are looking for someone who would like to join them. If you think you would like to be part of this music group, please contact the parish office at 732-458-0220 or speak with Wayne and Debbie after the 4PM Mass.

The Feast of All Souls Day
