Eucharistic Adoration

Are you stressed? Are you worried? Do you need a break?

Every Wednesday between 3-6PM, here at Epiphany, we have a peaceful place of refuge where you can come to escape the busyness and noise of the world. You will leave feeling much more relaxed and peaceful. It's a soothing balm for your soul. What is it? It's Eucharistic Adoration! It's Jesus present with us, on the Altar in the Monstrance. It's where we come to "just breathe"; Breathe in His Peace and to receive His blessings and graces that He pours out on us, as we leave our prayers and concerns in His capable hands.

In Matthew 11:28 Jesus invites us: "Come to me, all you who are weary and carrying heavy burdens, and I will give you rest." Will you respond to His invitation?

Let's Get Together and Pray

Meetings take place on Mondays at 7:00PM.

Our prayer group is open to anyone who is searching for answers and looking to pray as a community. Please contact Kim at kim@churchofepiphany.org for more information.

Wellness for Maturing Adults

The HOPE – Wellness Ministry invites you to join them every first Wednesday of the month where they will discuss wellness for maturing adults. This program goes far beyond simple "health practices" (diet, exercise, etc.) for better health; it teaches how to harness psychological power, and spiritual strength to achieve optimal health in body, mind and spirit. Our next meeting will be on December 4th following the 9AM Mass.

HOPE For the Homebound Ministry

We are reaching out to parishioners who may be alone, homebound, and unable to participate in our Church Community. If you are homebound, or know of someone who is homebound, and would like to receive the Eucharist or just a friendly visit or call from one of our parishioners, please call the parish office to make arrangements.

Celiac Sprue Parishioners

The parish provides a low gluten (<0.01% gluten content) host for those who are gluten-intolerant. Parishioners should see the Deacon or Priest prior to the beginning of Mass in order to be included in the reception of the Eucharist.

Advent Small Faith Sharing

As Advent approaches, so do all the real and imagined obligations that go along with getting ready for Christmas. The shopping, wrapping, decorating and planning are jammed into personal schedules that are already too busy. We see the signs and bumper stickers that appear every Fall: "Keep Christ in Christmas," "Jesus is the Reason for the Season." These messages remind us that the commercial frenzy that precedes Christmas often smothers the religious significance of the holiday. This year, why not step out of the whirlwind and join us in one of our Advent Small Faith Sharing Groups that will gather for four weekly sessions and share what we really are waiting for during the Advent season – the coming of the Savior. Small Faith Sharing Groups begin the week of November 24.

To sign up or for more information on the Advent Small Faith Sharing Groups, email Sandy at sandramull@comcast.net.

Altar Rosary Society

The Society's Mission is "to sustain the beauty and sanctity of our Church and to increase devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary by promoting true Christian Charity, love of God, Neighbor, and Catholic Family Life" and recitation of the Rosary. Meetings last about one hour in the All Purpose Room. Our membership is open to all Catholic Women and Men of our Parish. Please come to any of our monthly meetings to meet us. Our next meeting will take place on December 7th. Remember to keep praying your Rosary!

Bethany Bereavement

The Church of Epiphany Bethany Bereavement Support Group offers peer support for those grieving the death of a loved one. If you have lost a loved one, join others who have also experienced a loss for a series of 6 sessions of information, mutual sharing and peer support in a spiritual, caring, and confidential setting. If you are interested in joining, please call 732-458-0220.

Healing Mass

All are welcome to join us from September to May for a Healing Mass. We will begin at 6:30PM in the worship area with prayer and reflection. Mass will commence at 7PM followed by Prayers of Healing and Adoration. Our next Healing Mass will be on November 15th.

A Single Offering... ...Sanctified..

Gospel: Mark 13:24-32

Jesus told his disciples that many signs would be seen before the end of the world. He explained that the earth would pass away but his words would not. He also told them that neither the angels nor himself, but only his Father knew when this would take place.

"In those days, I, Daniel, heard this word of the Lord: 'At that time there shall arise Michael, the great prince, guardian of your people; It shall be a time unsurpassed in distress since the nations began until that time. At that time your people shall escape, everyone who is found written in the book.... But the wise shall shine brightly like the splendor of the firmament, and those who lead the many to justice shall be like the stars forever.' ... 'And they will see the Son of Man coming in the clouds with great power and glory, and then he will send out the angels and gather his elect from the four winds.'"

We are living in the end times. The prophecy of Daniel and the words of Jesus are reminding us of what is yet to happen. It leads me to ask many questions. Am I prepared to meet the Lord? Is my name written in the book of life? What questions about my Christian life is the Lord going to ask me? How can I respond?

Remembering that our God is a God of mercy and justice, with the church, we are bringing the Christian year to a close. It is the end time! Am I closer to the Lord today than one year ago? Have I made progress or am I just 'hanging in there?' Take a moment to answer these questions. His words will not pass away.

Parish Pastoral Council

What is the Parish Pastoral Council (PPC)?

The PPC is an advisory group that assists the pastor in matters important to the life of the parish (except financial). The members of the PPC's main role is to pray, reflect and make recommendations to the pastor on various parish concerns. The members are not a decision-making council.

What are some parish concerns the PPC might be called upon to assist with?

The PPC may be tasked with pastoral planning, reviewing programs we may wish to adopt at the parish, evaluating our outreach and evangelization efforts, and similar concerns.

What should the makeup of the PPC be?

The members of the PPC should reflect the makeup of the parish. Ideally, members are willing to be open to the promptings of the Holy Spirit as the PPC prayerfully considers items brought before it. Members should have the best interests of the parish at heart. Members should also be able to constructively add to the discussions taking place at the PPC meetings.

Currently, the PPC should consist of 6 members who are appointed based on parish recommendations. There is also the possibility of a youth member as well as at-large members. At-large members will be appointed by the pastor and will typically be people who have served that parish well for a number of years and whose contributions are respected and would be missed if no longer available to the parish. Parish trustees are also de facto members of the PPC.

How often does the PPC meet?

The PPC meets on the second Tuesday of each month. (Occasionally this may be adjusted due to holidays.)

How long is a term of service for a PPC member?

A term of service for the PPC is 3 years. Currently, we are reforming the PPC. WE will have 6 new members of the PPC: two will serve full terms of 3 years, two will serve for 2 years, and two will serve for just 1 year. Moving forward, each year there will be two new members appointed to 3-year terms.

Who should be considered for membership on the PPC?

It should go without saying that to be a member of the PPC a person should also be a member of the parish itself. Ideally the person should be a parishioner for awhile to get to know the parish itself. They should be someone involved in the life of the parish in some way. PPC members should be willing to be committed to the work of the PPC. (Parish staff are not eligible to be members of the PPC.)

If you are interested in joining the PPC, please submit your name for consideration in the mailbox in the commons area, or please nominate someone you think would be beneficial to this ministry.
